

Magnum in motion

Montag, 10 September 2007

Without any doubt, Magnum Photos is the world's most famous agency representing such well-known photographers like Henri Cartier-Bresson, Elliott Erwitt or Martin Parr. But did you know that they also feature a wide range of informational videos, called Magnum in motion? These are either essays, but you can also get podcasts, for example about the 2007 nominees or "covering conflicts". This is an overwhelming insight to the fascinating world of photojournalism and the people who actually build the spirit of Magnum. Lean back and enjoy!